

On the Polya permanent problem over finite fields

Alexander Guterman

The talk based on the joint work with Gregor Dolinar, Bojan Kuzma, and Marko Orel.

Let F be a finite field of characteristic different from two. We show that no bijective map transforms permanent into determinant when the cardinality of F is sufficiently large. The results will be illustrated by the number of examples.